

The DRMC BNCC Platoon

Introduction:

The Bangladesh National Cadet Corps (BNCC) is a voluntary organisation that aims to instil discipline, hardship, and patriotism in students while enriching their knowledge and preparing them to become smart citizens of future Bangladesh. The DRMC BNCC Platoon, one of the best Platoons of the army wing of Ramna Regiment, provides an opportunity for college-level students to experience the life of a cadet and compete with a patriotic attitude for future challenges in life.

Platoon Commander and Company Adjutant:

The DRMC BNCC Platoon is led by the respected PUO, Md. Abu Syed, Lecturer, who has completed the Short Course, Professor Under Officer-13 from Bangladesh Military Academy (BMA) with distinctive achievements. The current Company Adjutant, CUO Farhan Shihab Ta'sin, was a former Cadet Sergeant and In-charge of the DRMC BNCC Platoon. He excelled up to the Cadet Under Officer (CUO) rank due to his excellent performance and dedication and now leads the Bravo Company with great effort.

Motto and Spirit of BNCC:

The motto of the BNCC is Knowledge & Discipline. The spirit of the BNCC is embodied in the volunteers who are trained and prepared to work voluntarily for the nation.

Purpose:

The DRMC BNCC Platoon aims to train students to become good citizens who can render their services to the nation as organised and disciplined volunteers during peace and war.

Activities and Responsibilities:

The students enrolled under the BNCC Act 2016 are called cadets and are the main functional force of the BNCC. Cadets are trained and prepared to serve the nation during a national emergency, render services to distressed citizens and the nation during man-made and natural disasters, act as an aid to the Armed Forces to safeguard national integrity and undertake any responsibilities given by the government.

Achievements:

The DRMC BNCC Platoon achieved unprecedented success in the National Education Week-2022 Thana-level co-curricular activities competition, winning the Best BNCC Platoon, Best Platoon Commander (PUO Md. Abu Syed, Lecturer), and Best BNCC Cadet (Rudnan Ahammed Tanzim) categories. The achievements were possible due to the leadership of Respected PUO Md. Abu Syed, Lecturer and the contribution of every member of the BNCC platoon.

Conclusion:

The cadets of the DRMC BNCC Platoon have participated in various voluntary activities during sudden emergencies, such as fire emergencies and road accidents. They have also participated in multiple training camps and tours, highlighting their institution and their country in front of national and international representatives. Through their dedication and hard work, they have proven to be disciplined and organised volunteers who can serve their nation during peace and war.
