To Whom It May Concern

This letter is to confirm that enlisted student of Dhaka Residential Model College is selected for World Invention Competition and Exhibition (WICE). His outstanding performance and dedication has truly set him apart, and it is with great pleasure that he is selected to compete at the World Invention Competition and Exhibition (WICE) in Malaysia. The event will take place on the 20th to 26th of September at Malaysia. As he is selected for international showdown from our country, their participation in the international stage will be a source of pride for our college and community. The event will further present an invaluable opportunity for exposure, expand his knowledge, and make lasting connections with peers from different nationalities and cultures.

On behalf of Dhaka Residential Model College, we have no objection to the enlisted student regarding his participation in the international round in Malaysia and I would also like to let you know that his leave has been approved from September 20th to 26th September, 2025.
